At the entrance of the property we can find a beautiful wooden sliding gate that leads to the carport which has space to park two medium-sized vehicles, and due to its versatile design it can also be used perfectly as a relaxation area, bbq zone or even in the future to be used as as additional building space for additional living space. The house features three bedrooms, two of individual size and one of a larger double size, all with air conditioning. The open interior living space is made up of the fully equipped kitchen, polished concrete counter tops and island that face the living area. The backyard features a covered terrace, an emerald pool as well as an open shower and an additional 1/2 bath in the small laundry room.
