Property Description

Nestled above the renowned Whales Tail National Park in Uvita, Costa Rica, Hermosa Villas represents a community that epitomizes the splendor of its surroundings. With echoes of the grandeur of California's Big Sur and the charm of the French Riviera, this area is more than just a location; it's a lifestyle choice for those who appreciate natural beauty and luxury. At the heart of Hermosa Villas is the concept of community living that blends seamlessly with the environment. All Hermosa Retreats Villas are prominent villas in this community; they are perfect examples of the beauty that exists in Costa Rica. They are designed not just for privacy and comfort but to reflect the community's commitment to luxurious yet environmentally conscious living. The living areas in Hermosa Retreat, much like the rest of the community, are designed to foster a connection with the natural world. Blending indoor and outdoor spaces is a signature of the Hermosa Villas lifestyle.
