Property Description

This home glows with the comfortable warmth of natural wood finishes and lots of windows looking out onto jungle, a big valley, and the distant blue of the Pacific Ocean. It sits beside the main Lagunas road for excellent access, and has total privacy from a wall/gate protecting the entrance. Park your car in one of the nicest two-car carports in the area, where there is also a room for gardening equipment and a quad if you choose. Then walk down stairs that are covered against sun or rain to the house. You enter on the second floor, all dedicated to living room, dining area and kitchen. In front of you as you enter there is glass all around. Set down your things and you can go right out to a wide balcony, fully furnished with patio chairs and table, that runs the length and width of the home--the place where you will drink your morning coffee, have your evening drinks, and visit with friends.
