Property Description

Las Guapas Villas Tamarindo is a unique investment opportunity in one of Costa Rica's most popular tourist destinations. Built in 2022, this boutique hotel features five stylish units—three one-bedroom and two two-bedroom villas—accommodating up to 14 guests. Located on a 1,100-square-meter lot, the property is just a short walk from Tamarindo's town center and beach, offering both a peaceful retreat and easy access to local amenities. Designed by architect Lucía Croccia, the villas blend minimalist Mediterranean style with a focus on guest comfort and profitability. Already achieving strong financial performance in its first year, Las Guapas Villas has great potential for growth and expansion, providing an excellent opportunity for investors. Offered at $1.9 million, this property is ready for immediate operation with a proven track record in the hospitality industry.
