Property Description

This stunning home, set on a 5000 m² lot in the exclusive Black Stallion community, offers breathtaking ocean views and is surrounded by Costa Rican nature and wildlife. The property includes lush vegetation, fruit trees, and tranquility. The two-story residence is fully furnished with high-end furniture and features two spacious bedrooms with private balconies overlooking the ocean and pool, plus two bathrooms. There is potential to add a third bedroom. The home's kitchen, living, and dining areas are tastefully decorated, and it was built by American contractor Cody Qualls with Guanacaste wood, hurricane-proof windows, and custom cabinetry. Key features include a Force One security system, solar-lit pool, electric gate, and recent updates such as a new roof, fiber optic wiring, and power lines. The community offers no fees, an on-site restaurant and pool, and activities like hiking and horseback riding.
