Property Description

Lots in a Serene Natural Setting - Flores del Río in San Isidro Discover Flores del Río, a 29-lot community spanning 18 hectares of breathtaking landscape in San Isidro de Cóbano. Offering minimum lot sizes of 5,000m², this unique development is designed for residential, tourism, and agricultural use, with up to 25% development rights per lot. A Perfect Blend of Privacy & Convenience Each lot is individually connected to ASADA water and electricity, with well-maintained internal roads providing seamless access. The lots are carefully positioned to ensure privacy, surrounded by lush greenery, mature trees, and an abundance of open spaces. The refreshing hillside breeze sweeps through the land, and from every vantage point, you'll experience stunning mountain and jungle views. A pristine river runs through the heart of the community, with several lots enjoying direct access to its tranquil waters.
