Property Description

Located in the peaceful, charming area of El Carmen de Nandayure, approximately a 20-minute drive from Punta Islita and Playa Carrillo, this recently built home offers an excellent investment opportunity for those seeking a simple, functional lifestyle in harmony with nature, in the heart of Guanacaste. The property is situated along the main access road, ensuring easy year-round access, and features a privileged natural setting, with the magnificent Río Ora just minutes away, providing a fresh and tranquil environment ideal for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. The home offers pleasant views of the surrounding mountains, set in a quiet and secure area, perfect for anyone looking to step away from the fast-paced city lifestyle and embrace the true Pura Vida way of life in Costa Rica. The house is built with solid concrete walls and concrete slabs, offering durability and low maintenance. The roof features a PVC-insulated cover designed to reduce heat, noise, and dust.
