Property Description

This charming Mediterranean style villa sits on a breezy hillside and over looks the Pacific Ocean and verdant mountains. Just 5 minutes to Quepos and 10 minutes to the beach, it is located in a very well established residential neighborhood with other well valued homes. The property occupies a large lot for the area and has very easy access and a private, gated entrance. Also, there is a proper garage which is connected to the house. The house offers two separate structures: 1. the main house with kitchen, living, dining, master bedroom, walk in closet and full bath & 2 the guest suite with a large bedroom and en suite bathroom. There are very large terraces with great outdoor living and dining with a tropical garden in the front and a small herb and veggie garden in the back. The property has been maintained impeccably and has never before been on the market (original owners of 14 years).
