Property Description

This well built mountain home above Dominical, Costa Rica, is completely turnkey. All you need to bring is your suitcase! At an elevation of 1,600 feet above sea level, this home enjoys cool temperatures and ever changing views of the mountains and river below while still reasonably close to the beach, shops and services. It's a very private and serene location and takes full advantage of outdoor living and entertaining in Costa Rica; from the deck off of the living room and kitchen, the rancho with its gas grill and seating for four, to the pool area with multilevel seating. One side of the property has a small creek and the community offers 55 acre Nature Reserve with waterfalls and trails. In the coming years, the many planted fruit trees will provide you with a fresh supply of tropical fruits. The main level of the home features an open living room and kitchen just steps from the large balcony that overlooks the pool and mountains.
