Property Description

Unique and spectacular Uvita Whales Tale whitewater ocean and expansive mountain view property featuring two unique homes. The 3.7 acre property features a stunning pass through master suite casita with pool and an artistic 2 bedroom guest house overlooking primary jungle. Being entirely off grid with independent solar systems for each home adds extra value to this special property. The property is 1.5 Ha continuous from the LaUnion road to the Ballena River below. At the top of the property on a flat knoll sits the newly constructed single bedroom casita and pool. The design features accordion windows at both front and back walls allowing the home open into a covered breezeway. The home maximizes comfort levels and fully incorporating inside/outside living with accordion screening for blocking insects attracted by the lights at night time. From the bed located in the center of the room you having dramatic sunsets over the Whales Tale and each morning watch the sunrise over the mountain peaks from behind the casita.
