Property Description

This elegant, Spanish Colonial house is located in the exclusive golf community of Parque Valle del Sol which is very popular with families because of its proximity to private schools, shopping, restaurants and corporate centers. In addition to the 18-hole golf course, Parque Valle del Sol has controlled access, 24/7 security, tennis courts and a clubhouse. The house was designed to resonate luxury, style and entertaining. No detail was overlooked – from the intricate wood, metal and glass work, high tray ceilings, luxurious finishes and built in sound system, to the floor plan that perfectly transforms the lower level into a delight for entertaining! When your guests arrive, they are welcomed with the circular driveway that delivers them to the formal entry with a skylight, a beautifully sculpted stairway and to the formal living room beyond. Off of the formal entry there is a small office with built in furniture and a full bathroom that could be converted into another bedroom.
