Property Description

Feel your breath get swept away when you enter this new modern home and see just how beautiful the valley views can be at 1200 feet. The house has an open floor plan that effortlessly takes you through the kitchen and into the living room where the glass wall breaks away. You can feel the cool mountain breeze flowing through the entire house. The home is beautifully furnished with comfortable modern pieces and tropical touches that can effortlessly adapt to anyone's style. You'll never want to leave your couch after experiencing your first cup of Costa Rican coffee in a peaceful mountain escape like this. With a split floor-plan, you and a guest can maintain privacy while taking advantage of large common spaces. Both bedrooms have big views of the San Juan de Dios Valley where you can watch the exotic birds play all day long. Every inch of this home was thoughtfully designed and not a single detail went unattended.
