Property Description

This incredible lot is located on the first ridge overlooking Tortuga Beach, Garza Island, and the Terraba River Mouth. It could make many dreams come true. Whether you dream of a boutique hotel, a restaurant, a luxurious home, or a condo project, these are all possible on this magnificent property. This lot has so much visible potential, as well as access to the infrastructure and water needed to make those dreams a reality. A perfect location, right off the Coastal highway on Calle Perezoso – one of the best-maintained roads in the Southern Pacific. You are within walking distance to the beach, with easy access to excellent restaurants and bars as well as grocery stores and other services. The tourist attractions are also very easy to get to – avoid the drive up and down the mountain – even a 2 wheel drive be used to gain access. The site offers expansive mountain and ocean views with sunsets 365 days a year.
