There is plenty of room to expand on the existing construction or to build on the remaining plantel. In fact, you may decide to reassemble the 1000 sq ft 200-year-old home (a Joglo) which as disassembled and imported from Bali, and is ready to reassemble on one of two additional building plantels! This structure is a work of art and is included in the price. You can live in this a one-of-a-kind masterpiece, or use it to host guests, or perhaps create a spa-like environment around the infinity pool that you design.
