Also, views of the illuminating sunsets directly into the water various months of the year, while at other times you get the glorious array of colors from behind the mountain range. Even nighttime light views of the growing town of Uvita below add a different aspect to the everchanging view day and night. Immaculate gardens and mature landscaping, as well as, the infrastructure of the paver stone driveway, electric gate entrance, concrete walkways around the home, and all-important water drainage. As you enter Villa de Sueños you are greeted by the immediate “wow factor” of the amazing view through 30-foot-wide glass doors that open completely to create an open-air indoor/outdoor experience, as well as, the high vaulted Cedar wood ceilings giving a feel of spaciousness.
