Property Description

Here is an ocean view lot in the hart of Uvita, 5 minutes to town and 10 minutes or less to the beach. A great location for those that want to have an ocean view lot but don't want to drive long for the view. This is a very nice lot at the and of the road with very low traffic.Entering the property is the main building site ready for you to start building your home in the jungle. The beautiful lush flora that surrounds it includes tall trees that build the perfect canopy creating a highway for Nature! Monkeys, sloths, birds and more! The strong breeze that comes through from the spring fed river makes the perfect climate to live at this lower altitude.The new artisanal well is at the bottom of the property close to the creek. Having your own well for your home & gardens at a very low cost is a benefit you will enjoy.The privacy and the feeling of living at one with nature, the wildlife and the sound of the leaves moving with the breeze can be your dream come true property!This is priced to sell so please contact me soon or a virtual or personal tour.
