Property Description

The perfect secluded retreat center in Uvita, Costa Rica is finally available for you to own. Are you ready to make your dreams come true? Maybe this is the time in your life to start creating your ideal family escape estate in a tropical, nature-filled destination, where you can all go to get away from it all. This beautiful, 50+ acre, self-sustaining, off-grid property offers spectacular Pacific Ocean views from a higher elevation with cooler temperatures than you'd find at the coast. This immaculate, nature-blessed property is surrounded by undeveloped and protected land that has river access with spectacular waterfall views. All of this is just 10 minutes off the paved road into Uvita's commercial center. This property is the perfect get-away that still allows easy access to everything you need. In order to preserve the pristine natural jungle and all of the wildlife and vegetation that it hosts, only a portion of this expansive property has been developed.
